WILMINGTON JOURNAL.

From the Raleigh Standard. ANOTHER CHANGE TO DEMOCRCY.

We publish below the Card of Mr. Bledsoe, of this City, in which it will be seen he sets forth his reasons for ahandoning the Whigs and attaching himself to the Republican party. The violent manner in which Mr. Bledsoe has been assailed in the Whig papers, for daring to think and act for himself, has rendered this publication necessary; and we tell his denouncers, once for all, that they will make nothing by their coarse attacks on him. He is not a candidate, and does not expect to be, for public office; and his motives are therefore above suspicion. It gives us pleasure to Bay to our friends at a distance, who may notice this change from Whiggery to Democracy, that Mr. Bledsoe is a gentleman of talants and of high respectability. The following is his Card:

"It is well known to my friends here, that I have never taken any active or prominent part in politics. Before and during the canvass slavery at the South! Now here is something of 1844, I belonged to the Whig party, and as for Senator Mangum to waste the people's one of its humblest members voted and acted with that party.

" As I can certainly do this no longer, and as liberty of gratuitously bringing my name before the public, I must ask of you the privilege of a small space in your columns, to make public the reasons which have determined me to pursue the course I have marked out. "It is very true that in 1844, I differed with the candidate of the Whig party upon some points which I considered of no great moment, and also, one question which I did esthis, as he declared that he was personally in lished in the National Intelligencer. favor of it, and would not interpose his veto circumstances, for Mr. Clay. "Mr. Polk was elected; the annexation of Senator from Connecticut, and it was lost, 15 Texas was effected, and there has been no to 38, thus: complaint on this subject in North Carolina with either party. Indeed, no opposition to northern democrats. this measure has ever been publicly expressed rupt Law, that was repealed before the canvass of 1844, and no considerable number of elected by the whigs, and any party desired its re-enactment. The Tariff of 1842 has been repealed, and the substitute of 1846 has perhaps given more satisfaction and tended to settle on a firmer and more liberal basis the revenue policy of the government, than any other Tariff since the foundation of the government. If any one amongst Southern democrats. us desires its repeal, I have not heard it. The Independent Treasury, likewise, has been fully tried and tested under Mr. Polk's adminis- Underwood-9 Southern whigs. tration; nor do I recollect to have heard of the first man expressing a desire to see the system supplanted by a National Bank. The Moore, Sturgeon-12 Northern democrats. only other questions of importance that have arisen since 1844, have been the war with Mexico and the Wilmot Proviso. The annexation of Texas was undoubtedly the cause of Northern democrats, our recent war with Mexico. Mexico took | Southern democrats, umbrage at the measure, and never, until she Northern whigs, was obliged by force, did she recognise our Southern whigs, title to any portion of Texas. written a short time previous to the Whig North.-Mobile Register. National Convention at Philadelphia, to be in favor of the Wilmit Proviso.

"Gen. Taylor's opinions in regard to it are not precisely known, but he has declared his decided approval of entending the ordinance of 1787 over any Territory beyond the Rio Grande; and without some explanation (as the Wilmot Proviso and Ordinance of 1787 are the same) he must be considered as at least inclined to support such a policy. No one, of course, can suspect that the Whig party of any Southern State will support the measure but if nearly half of them are willing to take Mr. Clay and the Proviso, we see no reason why they should not do the same with Gen. Taylor, if he agrees with Mr. Clay.

"As to Gen. Cass's opinions on this subject, they have been unequivocally avowed against the Proviso, and his position is well settled, by his speeches and his vote in the Senate .-Believing that the grounds he has assumed are in accordance with the great compromises has been a firm and consistent supporter of with Mexico, and possesses withal those eminent abilities so much required in the administration of the Federal Government, I expect, if I live, to cast my vote for him for Presi-

"As to the respective Candidates for the Vice Presidency, I have no hesitancy in expressing my decided preference for Gen. Butler over Mr. Fillmore; nor in all sincerity can I perceive to what single reason the latter should be preferred by any Southern freeman, Whig or Democrat

Correspondence of the Charleston Courier. Gen. Cass on Slavery .- If we understand the original and genuine principles of the Constitution, and the application of them to slavery, we are not mistaken in saying that the following declarations of Gen. The various " Lives" of Gen. Taylor .- In asmuch as Whiggery was galvanized into renewed life by discovering that there were two lives of Gen. Cass afloat differing a little from each other, and could not help Roarbacking over the discovery, we desire them to give us some information about the various lives of Gen. Taylor that are before the country. A friend of ours says there cannot be less than California, and New Mexico Territorial bill. TWENTY, if he includes the book called 'Taylor and his Generals," and the several Taylor "biographies and eulogies" agree in any of their parts, not even in giving the character and result of his few battles They all seem designed to represent the different "FA-CES" which the General has presented to the political world-there being one "life" to tickle the "Natives"-one to gain the support of the "ultra partizan Whigs"-one to catch the votes of gullible or marketable Democrats-one to Wheedle the Abolitionists and Wilmot Proviso men-one for the anti-warand-peace-under-any-circumstances-men, and another for the war men, and the advocates of time and treasure in making a speech about, and here is something demanding a few paragraphs in explanation from the scrupulous some of the papers of this City have taken the Whig letter writers! Twenty different lives of Gen. Taylor in the market, and no two of them agreeing exactly in any of their parts! Well, that number ought to be sufficient for the supply of all the factions that may be arrayed against Democratic rule and Democratic progress !-- Baltimore Republican.

A Question FOR THE PUBLIC TO DECIDE AN it be expected that Merchants and Druggists, who lend themselves to palm off upon the public their base imitations and counterfeit medicines, in preference to the genuine, merely because they can make more per cent on them, would dea honestly in selling other articles? We think not. Persons that deal out counterfeit medicines, and thus encourage counterfeiters, even at the expense of the health and life of their customers and neighbors, are they honest or honorable men ! No. And they should be avoided. REMEMBER, Wm. Shaw is agent, and has for
